

Vegan Haiku

I stand still and look,
At the horror around me
Animals slaughtered

Just to fuel humans,
To satisfy our stomachs,
Innocent blood spilled

Numerous poultry,
Fattened up for the butcher,
Do they deserve this?

Fish caught in hundreds,
Greedy consumed and bought,
Do they deserve this?

Pigs slaughtered for pork,
A creature killed for meat,
Do they deserve this?

Water buffalos,
Strong, wild beings killed for us,
Do they deserve this?

Large herds of cattle,
Watch their neighbours die for beef,
Do they deserve this?

When will the end come?
The slaughter and the killing,
Is it all needed?

You kill for your greed,
You gorge on nature's children,
And don't think to stop

"No alternative"
That is a lie proven wrong,
There's a better way

It's the vegan life,
No slaughter, no more killing,
Embrace this new life

It is still healthy,
It will still satisfy greed,
It will keep us strong

Aren't animals,
Still beings of our earth and land,
Haven't they got rights?

This new vegan life,
Only takes what can be grown,
Veggies, nuts and more

Isn't it better,
No more unneeded slaughter,
No more endless kills

We are all alive,
And to be treated as such,
So what is your choice?

The good vegan life?
Or the life full of spilled blood,
It's all up to you
